

"The Charlies" - a newly formed band

The group leaders Benjamin, François and Angela are turning their heads to the right and their eyes skywards, with great hope and confidence in the future.

Some of the better known musicians are:

Atifeta Jahjaga, from Kosovo, a virtuoso "Lahuta" (one string fiddle) player, also President of Kosovo

Martin Schultz, accomplished "Church Organ" player, also EU Parliament President

Benjamin Netanyahu, a fine "Shofar" player, also Prime Minister of Israel

Ibrahim Boubacar Kenta, a wild "Djemba Drum" player, also President of Mali, Africa.

François Hollande, a very effective "Yoghurt Blower" (a practice adopted from Romania), also President of the French Republic

Angela Merkel, a true wizard in playing the "Scheithold", an old string instrument, also Chancellor of Germany

Donald Tusk, owner of a real elephant tusk, turned into an original flute-like instrument that he passionately blows between European Parliament sessions.
