

World landmarks light up in support of Israel after deadly Hamas attacks

David Baratz

USA Today – Oct 9, 2023

The Brandenburg Gate is illuminated in the colours of the Israeli flag as a show of solidarity, in Berlin, Germany, Saturday night, Oct. 7, 2023.

Sven K'uler, Dpa Via AP

Israel's flag is projected onto the front of 10 Downing Street in a show of support on Oct. 8, 2023 in London. After Hamas began rocket and ground attacks on Israel yesterday, the UK Prime Minister condemned the attack and offered Israel unequivocal support. Justin Palmer, Getty Images

People with Israeli flags watch the Opera House while it is illuminated in blue to show solidarity with Israel in Sydney on Oct. 9, 2023. DAVID GRAY, AFP Via Getty Images

Israel's flag is projected onto the Berlaymont, the European Commission, the executive branch of the European Union (EU), headquarters in Brussels on Oct. 8, 2023, a day after the Palestinian militant group Hamas launched its massive surprise attack on Israel with a barrage of rockets and a massive ground assault. JOHANNA GERON, AFP Via Getty Images

Pedestrians cross a street in front of an Israeli national flag displayed on a giant screen in the Ukrainian capital Kyiv on Oct. 8, 2023. SERGEI CHUZAVKOV, AFP Via Getty Images

A person is passing in front of the flag of Israel, that is projected on the Bulgarian Parliament building, in Sofia, Bulgaria, Sunday, Oct. 8, 2023, to show support for Israel following Hamas' unprecedented invasion from Gaza.

Valentina Petrova, AP

Flinders street station is lit up in the colors blue and white in solidarity with Israel on Oct. 9, 2023 in Melbourne, Australia.

Asanka Ratnayake, Getty Images

An Israeli Flag and the word "solidarity," spelled in English and Hebrew, light up the Paramount Miami Worldcenter skyscraper in downtown Miami on Monday, Oct. 9, 2023.

Eva Marie Uzca ´tegui, AP Images For World Satellite Television News

The arts centre spire is lit up in the colours blue and white in solidarity with Israel on Oct. 9, 2023 in Melbourne, Australia.

Asanka Ratnayake, Getty Images